NEWS - the venue of the conference has changed to Aalborg University in Copenhagen, why the new conference website is located at:

<http://designsforlearning2012.aau.dk/>

As a consequence we hereby announce the third call for abstracts and extend the deadline for submission of abstracts to 23 January 2012.

We acknowledge all abstracts sent to the e-mail df12012@dpu.dk, and we will continue to use this official e-mail. Guidelines and templates for abstracts are now available at the conference website.

The Third Designs for Learning Conference will explore learning environments. The conference will be organized around empirical research methods and theoretical development in relation to designs for - and in - learning.

The conference also offers a PhD master class starting on 24 April 2012. PhD students can free of charge participate in the masterclass - when also signing up for the conference. More information will be available at the conference website.

We are looking forward to seeing you in Copenhagen
